Special Notice to Business Men.

As an advertising paper, the Democrat is universally regarded as the established medium of business communication between the buyer and seller; its largely increased circulation, both at home and abroad, offers a favorable opportunity for a judicious dissemination of mercantile information. It is also a favorite family journal, because of its extensive trade, and its large and

and suddenly, without notice, he is off on an antiforeign and anti-Pope hobby. And now, if his partisans have any principle at all on any question, they are destined to another disappointment. On the very grave issues before the country now, he is non-committal. There is a right and a wrong side to our territorial policy now before the federal government, but Fillmore is non-committal, and his supporters are on both sides. All the remedy he or his friends propose is: Give us the office. "We can't tell what to do, and have no plan at all, and no policy—dear me, this noise and confusion! I told you so; but give us the office."

The country knows just what they can do, and can crack and find fault, make juggling platforms,

and change them to catch votes, and get office.

As to any plan or its execution upon a great question, they are entirely innocent, and intend to remain in no. The whole country sees where the Democracy and this Black Republican party are tending. They stand uncompromising antago-nists; but what are these harlequins in politics

after? What would they do with Fillmore at their head? It is sheer folly to parade the informations of Fillmore from Democratic sources to the face of the Fremont men. It will not win.

We seek the attention of the friends of our national Union, to the following extract from the eloquent speech of James Buchanan, in the Senate of the United States, on the 5th of January, 1856.

On Mr. Calhoun's resolutions. The warning he then gave is as appropriate and necessary now as it was in 1855, and for more so. Nothing like it can be gleaned from the record of either of his competitors. Mr. Buchanan has faith in the incompetence and patriotism of his countrymen; and the verdict they will render, in November next,

will prove that he does not over-estimate their loyalty to the Union.

On this question I desire to do nothing as a member of the Senate, but as a citizen, I desire to express my views. I believe that the preservation of the Union is the paramount duty of every citizen. I believe that the preservation of the Letter from Mulheisen County.

Mulheisen County, August 4, 1856.

Meigs, Editor: Yesterday I had the pleasure of attending a Democratic meeting in this city, and reading the address made by Mr. J. H. Brown, of the Kentucky State Convention, and was greatly pleased to find that the cause of the Union was so warmly and ably supported.

It was with great interest that I listened to the address of Mr. Brown, and was greatly impressed with the conviction of the fearful crisis

which we are passing through.

Mr. Brown's address was a masterpiece of

ONFLAMMATION!—A BLOCK IN RUIN!

At a quarter past twelve o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in the rear of F. Senger's grocery store, on Market street, between Fourth and Fifth, which communicated to the adjoining store of Messrs. Senger (best and shoe), J. B. Richey (dry goods), Vigorin (fancy), and a china store adjoining. The stocks of goods were mostly saved, but partly in a damaged condition. The building, however, was totally destroyed. Too late for particulars.

Death of John P. Fullilove.
On Sunday morning at 5 o'clock, Mr. John P. Fullilove breathed his last at his residence, on Union street, a few doors below Second. He had been complaining for some time, but was confined to his bed only for a day or two. For many years connected with the Louisville Post Office under several administrations, filling the position of first clerk, he was very generally known to our citizens, and as generally beloved and respected. He had been quite silent and uncommunicative, and as he was a friend to his friends, and a foe to his enemies, we can only say that his death is a loss to his friends and a relief to his enemies. The funeral will be held at his residence on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial in the cemetery.

The Democratic of Oldham had a glorious meeting at Lagrange on Thursday last, and we are informed that Mr. Holt made one of his most powerful speeches. An unusual collection was developed during his speech. Mr. Holt had addressed the people of Oldham in 1860, when he had been elected to Congress, and his speech was a masterpiece of logic and eloquence. He was supported by a large number of friends, and the meeting was a success.

To the "Faithful."
Another Chance.
A gentleman proposes to bet as follows:
One hundred dollars that Buchanan will beat Fillmore in New York.
One hundred dollars that Fillmore will not get the electoral vote of a single State.
One hundred dollars that A. P. Willard will be elected Governor of Indiana.
One hundred dollars that Buchanan gets the vote of Indiana for President.
One hundred dollars that Buchanan and Breckinridge are elected President and Vice President of the United States.
These bets to be taken together. Now, if the Fillmore men will not take that, let them advise their candidate to step out of the way.

Another Chance for the Hopeful.
A gentleman who has a snug little country house of four acres, with house, orchard, etc., complete, situated within 11 miles of the city, will sell it upon the following conditions, to-wit: Four hundred dollars cash in hand, and three hundred and fifty dollars when Buchanan carries Kentucky, provided he lives until after the Presidential election, and to retain a lien upon the land until the full payment is made, in the event of his carrying Kentucky. The property is valued at $500.

Face the Music.
The Louisville Journal has several times asserted most positively that the contest for the Presidency was between Fillmore and Fremont. To test the sincerity of Premie's statement, and the confidence of the Know-Nothing party, two bets were offered through the Democrat—as follows:
$250 that Buchanan would get twice as many electoral votes as Fillmore.
$250 that Fremont would get twice as many electoral votes as Fillmore.
No one has responded to either proposition, or even made inquiry about them. The gentlemen who authorized the bets are growing weary of asking "has any one called to take our bet?" and still bring up with the stereotyped answer, "no."

Death of Walter C. Caruth.
Intelligence of the death of Walter C. Caruth, a well known citizen of Louisville, reached our city on Saturday morning. He died at Louisville, Kentucky, after a short illness. He was a member of the Louisville Club, and a friend to his friends. He was buried in the cemetery on Sunday morning.

General Engraver and Printer.
We take pleasure in directing the attention of readers to the card of Mr. J. D. Mann. He is one of the most skillful engravers who has ever had an office in our city. His work will compare with the work of any engraver in the country, and we take great pleasure in referring all wishing anything in his line to him. His office is No. 42, Fourth street, between Main and Market.

Democratic Rallyes!
Rally, Rally!
Col. J. O. Bullock will address the Democratic Club to-night.
Hoi for Tippecanoe.
Remember the great meeting some off on Wednesday, when that among other things, the Hon. D. S. Dickinson, of New York, will be there. It will be a grand demonstration for the Constitution and the Union.

Rally, Democrats! Rally, Rally!
Doctor B. F. Mallon, of Ripley county, Indiana, has consented to address the Democratic Association, at Headquarters, on Fifth street, to-morrow night. He is one of the best speakers in all Indiana. Let us be sure and give him a house full of Kentucky boys. He is worthy of it.

Democratic Mass Meeting in Tippecanoe Battle Ground.
The New Albany and Salem Railroad will carry passengers to the Democratic Mass Meeting, at Tippecanoe Battle Ground, 31 September, at half price.
Persons wishing to attend will call at the Company's office, on Main street, opposite the Galt House.
A. H. HAINES, Agent.
N. STEVENS, Gen'l Ticket Agent.
AUGUST 25, 1896.

Democratic Rallyes.
There will be a Democratic meeting at Pleasant Grove meeting-house, near the cross roads, Jefferson county, on Saturday, September 6th, 1896, at 10 o'clock. W. D. Reed, District Elector, and Capt. Henry County Elector, have promised to be in attendance.
The meeting is for the purpose of electing delegates to the National Convention, and for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention.

KENTUCKY AND INDIANA GREAT UNION MEETING AND BARBECUE!
At Henrysville, Clarke County, Indiana, Sept. 10th, 1896.
Hon. J. D. BRIGHT, Gov. ARCH. DIXON, Gov. A. P. WILLARD, and other eminent speakers have accepted invitations, and will address the meeting.

A FURNISHED BREAKFAST.
What lady of gentle mind would remain under the curse of a disagreeable broom, when, by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet but, leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their friends, and the subject is so delicate their friends will never mention it. For a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples, and freckles, from the face, leaving it of a soft and rosy hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning. The skin will be soft and white, and the complexion will be improved. The "Balm" is a most valuable and useful preparation, and is sold in bottles of 25 cents and 50 cents.

THE LATEST LIQUID REMEDY FOR BALDNESS.
"Use it internally until the hair grows, then take it externally to clean the roots." The Boston Post man has credited this to its invention.

A company of "Play Haters" calling themselves "The People's Dramatic Company," are giving the citizens of Lexington, Ky., a taste of their quality. We always knew that Lexington was the Athens of the West.

Belie Britton, who has been on a fishing excursion, gives to ladies the following advice:
"Ladies who go fishing should leave their homes at home, as sitting in them on the rocks is as bad as sitting on a gridiron."

LOUISVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.
An opening address will be delivered before the young ladies of the College this evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. The public are invited to attend. The institution is situated on Seventh street, near Broadway.

We understand that arrangements have been made to run a omnibus to and from the school to the extreme portions of the city, so soon as the number of students will justify it.

We find a letter in the Cleveland Plaindealer, dated August 24th, from Lawrence, N. Y., which states that the trouble in the Territory was settled by an exchange of prisoners and a mutual understanding. On the contrary, we saw a letter dated Leavenworth, K. T., August 23rd, which says that there is great excitement in that place, and that James Jones in the business of destruction and robbery.

The Democratic pole in the Eighth Ward was raised on Saturday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance, a flag presented by the young ladies, and a speech made by Mr. Walton, of Lexington. The pole is 125 feet in height, surrounded by a chain of coils, and a flag streaming in the breeze.

The New York Daily News predicts that Kansas county, New York, which contains the city of Brockport, will give ten thousand majority for Buchanan over the Black Republicans.

DISOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.
We call attention to the change occurring in the firm of Hull, Hunt & Co.
